

Backyard Hero Award

Recognizing outstanding volunteers for their work in our community

John Urban

Raul De Luna Bayview Foundation

Raul De Luna's presence and selflessness are treasured by the Bayview Foundation and Bayview community. Raul's humility sometimes masks his deep commitment to cultural arts. He has been essential in finding educational and recreational supplies for families living in the Bayview housing project. A few of Raul's other volunteer activities include Luke House, Centro Hispano, and Bayview Triangle Ethnic Fest, coming up on Sunday, August 19.

For more information about Bayview Foundation, visit www.bayviewfoundation.org or call 608-256-7808.

Janet Boerboom Midwest Environmental Advocates

Growing up on a Wisconsin dairy farm gave Janet Boerboom a great appreciation for our environmental resources. As a UW Law School student, Janet's interests led to her internship at Midwest Environmental Advocates, Wisconsin's only nonprofit environmental law center. At Midwest Environmental Advocates, Janet was part of the new seminar program in environmental law and advocacy where she made invaluable contributions.

For more information about Midwest Environmental Advocates, visit www.midwestadvocates.org or call 608-251-5047.

Community Shares of Wisconsin's 52 member nonprofits challenge the root causes of social problems by advocating, educating, and seeking progressive solutions. Our nonprofits are dedicated to building social and economic equity and a healthy environment.

Sponsors:

